THE MARKETS

COTTON.

Liverpool opened a little disappoint-ingly this morning at 4 points down and closed at the same figures. There were spot sales of 5000 bales, which is considered very good for a half-holiday. After the excitement in the American markets yesterday, the market seemed to be satisfied today with a rest, as it ruled narrow throughout the short session and closed from 2 to 3 points under yesterday. The trade seems to be figuring on a decided stand one way or another, and we are likely to see some erratic changes in the market next week.

Bryan spots are quoted today at 14 1/4c, basis middling.

Local Cotton Receipts.

Lawrence warehouse	11,760
Union warehouse	6,025
Brick warehouse	4,185

Total for season.....21,970
Spot cotton, 14 1/4c, basis middling.
Cottonseed, $21.00 per ton.

A large force of experienced sales-ladies will be at Walker's 5c and 10c store every night to show lady shoppers the many beautiful things to be found there.

Mrs. J. W. Johnson and Mrs. L. Taylor returned today from Marlin, where they have been attending the Daughters of the Confederacy state convention.

Do not throw your soiled neckties away. Send them to us. We will dry-clean and press them like new for 10c each. Union Tailor Shop Hat & Dye Works.

Chris Seale, of Callahan county, who is the guest of his mother at Benchley, was in the city today shaking hands with his many friends. Mr.
Seale was called here a few days ago by a telegram announcing the serious injury of his mother, who accidentally fell from the gallery in front of her home. She is reported much improved today.

Dolls, dolls, dolls of a thousand kinds at Walker's 5c and 10c store. He has every kind and his large line of dressed dolls delight the children. Be sure to take the little tots to see the dolls.

I repair and adjust all makes of sewing machines. T. A. Satterwhite, salesman and collector for Singer Sewing Machine Company.

It is a big disappointment to the managers of the Colonial theatre not to be able to give the people of Bryan the opportunity of seeing "The Blue Mouse." Through some mixing of routes by the booking office this show was supposed to play here December 15, the same date "Polly of the Circus" is to be presented. This is to be regretted, as "The Blue Mouse" is a Shubert production and one of the best shows coming into the state this season.
